She was my high school math teacher when we had met. She kept me focused. I did not realize my dream, however until college, when I took on tutoring others. I did not have to work at all, of course. My father was a prominent director in the movie industry. I liked taking care of myself, and as much as I hated to admit it, it made me feel connected to Abby, even though whatever connection we had been severed some time ago.

Because I obviously wanted to know what the hell William was thinking all throughout the first book and also because I already had it purchased. So I was not anticipating anything good to come from this book; after reading Honor Thy Student, I went onto a short rant about all that was wrong with it. This 'review' will be quite short so please bare with me. I did not like it whatsoever, and now
